

Pittosporum Bannow Bay

shrub

Intense mottled pink foliage from October to spring. New foliage is variegated cream and olive green when it appears, which then progresses to various shades of pink mixed with cream and green for summer.

A truly exciting new addition to the range of dwarf Pittosporum

Dramatically changes colour throughout the season

Originating as a sport of Tom Thumb

